SWIMMING.

ST. GEORGE'S BATHS, FIMLICO.
An interesting race took place last Monday evening at the St. George's Baths, Fimlico, for a handsome goblet, the gift of a gentleman styling himself "A Swimmer," and it is his intention to give one every month for five consecutive months, to be swum for on the first of every month at the above baths; to commence at half-past seven p.m. Open to anybody. The trial heat was twelve lengths of the bath, and the following three started: Haye, Gadsby, and Donagel. Won by the latter after a good race, the former giving up. The second heat brought to the scratch the following: Drakeford, Sowton, Bartlett, and Nicholson. Bartlett led the way at a slashing pace, but after a few lengths, was missed, and Drakeford was declared the winner, but in contest it was announced that the first final heat was twenty lengths, when Drakeford, Sowton, and Donagel started for the word "off." A good heat in speed, Donagel going at had exhausted himself, and retired. Drakeford proved the winner after a good race, Sowton standing no chance. As seven of these cups to be given, the winner of one is barred from competing for the others. We think we ought to congratulate the London Swimming Club on their success in carrying off the two first prizes of the season, both of the above cup, and with the exception of Donagel, they are the swiftest swimmers that ever entered the water.

THE COMING INTERNATIONAL DOG SHOW.

The patronage which his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales has intimated his intention of bestowing on the forthcoming International Dog Show, appointed to take place in the intervening week between the ensuing Epsom and Ascot Races, at the Agricultural Hall, Islington, has had the effect of causing a very large number of the aristocracy to make entries also, and to become competitors with his Royal Highness in sporting and other dogs, which it is now understood, he, too, intends exhibiting. Amongst those who have made entries during the last few days are the Earl of Derby, the Duke of Beaufort, Earl Craven, Lord Berners, Lady Evelyn Bruce, Sir J. Carnarvon, Stanbury, M.P., Captain Brook, and large numbers of the best known sporting men in the kingdom. Some very great curiosities are stated to be entered in the foreign classes, a large number of entries having been received of animals to be exhibited previously at the Paris Dog Show; and for the purpose of still further accommodating those who are to bring their specimens from distant parts, the period for making entries has been extended to the 11th May.

The show is, it appears, to consist of two divisions and 66 classes, namely, dogs used in field sports, and dogs not used in field sports.

SHOOTING.

HORNSEY WOOD.

SATURDAY.—In expectation of the important £10 match between Earl Cowper and the Hon. G. H. Heathcote, appointed to come off on Saturday last, the aristocratic attendance at these favourite shooting grounds was very great. After some inconvenient delay it became apparent that no match could possibly come off, as a messenger arrived announcing the unfortunate indisposition of Mr. Heathcote, who is so universally respected by the members of the club. The usual sweepstake shooting, however, commenced, the winners proving to be Mr. Dilwyn, M.P., Captain Peyton, Major Anson, Lord Stormont, Lord Cowper, and Lord A. Paget. The proceedings were suddenly brought to a close by an accident of a very serious character. One of the gentlemen about to shoot inadvertently pulled one of the triggers of his gun, and its contents lodged in the foot of Mr. Taylor, of Holloway-road. The sufferer was immediately conveyed under the armchairs of all, to Bartholomew's Hospital, where the ankle was amputated, but we regret to hear that considerably delayed before the operation could be performed increased the poor man's agony.

ROSEMARY BRANCH, PECKHAM.

This muster at these grounds on Friday last was very good, and a great many of Hammond's best were destroyed. During the afternoon three sweepstakes at five birds each were shot, of which the following is the score:—

EAST HANTS GROUNDS, PORTSMOUTH.

On Saturday last these grounds were well attended to witness pigeon and sparrow shooting matches and sweepstakes which were to be decided. The first was a sweepstake of £1 each, at pigeons, for officers in her Majesty's service, three birds each, 11 and 1 trap. The following gentlemen contended—Major Egerton, Colonel Russell, Capt. Stutle, R.N., Hon. Mr. Charteris, R.N., and Major Mitchell. Major Egerton won the first and fourth, killing all; Capt. Stutle won the second, killing two out of three, and the third as well, killing all; Colonel Russell won the fifth sweep, killing two out of three, and divided with Major Egerton and Captain Stutle the sixth and last. After the pigeons were disposed of several sweepstakes at sparrows followed, five birds each, three traps (decided by dice), 11 and 1 trap, 40 boundary. The following gentlemen contended—Major Egerton, Mr. Cooke (third), Colonel Russell, Captain Stutle, Major Mitchell, Messrs. Francis, Warrell, Hall, Borsley, Newham, Haigs, Post, Mack, Garnett, and Smith. The principal winners were Mr. Cooke (third), Captain Stutle, Mr. Warrell, Mr. Haigs, and Mr. Newham. After which a match between Mr. Warrell and Mr. Jenner, for a sovereign each, five birds each, three traps, came off. Mr. Warrell winning by one bird, as follows:—Mr. Warrell, 1 0 1 1 1; Mr. Jenner, 1 0 0 1 1. Mr. Pead and Mr. Francis next shot their match at seven birds each, on the same conditions as before, Mr. Francis winning by one bird. Mr. Smith and Mr. Turner next shot their match at thirteen birds each, same conditions as before, Smith giving two dead birds. The following is the result:—Mr. Smith, 0 11 0 0 0 0 0 1 1; Mr. Turner, 1 1 1 0 0 0 0 1 1. In all, twenty dozen birds were disposed of during the afternoon, and were supplied by Mr. T. Baker on the ground.

WRESTLING.

GLENN VIEW GROUNDS, BURNLEY.

On Saturday last the proprietor, Mr. Peter Taylor, gave 25 to 1 a wrestling for by voices under seven score 4lb, Lancashire fashion, who have not wrestled for more than 21 years. There were four competitors, viz. Thomas Garratt, of Bury; W. and T. Mangle, near Tarrington; and H. Counsel (alias Borden), of Bury. Garratt and W. Mangle first entered the arena. After a lapse of 15 min (the stipulated time) Mangle proved the victor. Counsel and T. Mangle then set to, and the contest terminated in favour of the former, so that Counsel and W. Mangle remain to wrestle off on Saturday next; it being the best two falls out of three to be the winner. During the trials some very good points were displayed. About 800 spectators were present, but very little money changed hands on the event. Mr. Taylor was the umpire.

TATTERSALLS. The attendance at 1379a Park-corner was very limited, the majority of subscribers being at, or en route to, Chester, but settling on local business. The following having been concerned on Saturday, those who did not avail themselves of the opportunity of attending on Saturday, are therefore obliged to pay the price of acquiring up accounts. The "exchange of notes" having been explained, a ring was formed on the lawn, from which we were enabled to take the following results:—Prize—First—Cherry—£100—4 was taken to the money about Stradella; but as the prize was not a horse, a second stood out for a shabber odds. Calter 10, The Flower, and Asteroid were firm at their respective prices; and, after frequent inquiries about Dunkirk, one well-known sportsman, who had been absent from the meeting, offered to take Dunkirk for the sum of the favorite, at between £200 to £250 was taken in one lot; and the alleged "boltering up" of the Ullie, who was sold for 14 to 1, £250, to £400 was accepted about Tom Pool. It is a pity that the artist has not been able to make his name more widely known, making an unpleasantly long stay at this popular resort, continuing to Canada, where his point of attraction, his vocal powers in selections from "L'esprit Borla" having been the cause of his being invited to give a series of recitals, which have been received highly with a perfect ovation. Messrs. Harvey and Froude, who have been instrumental in securing his services, are to be congratulated for their efforts in this behalf. The almost painful feeling of meritment engendered—a copious list of vocalists and instrumental performers of the highest order contributing to render this highly

At a dinner held at the house of Mr. H. Clasper, Clasper Hotel, Seaside, road, Newcastle, on Friday, the 1st inst., Robert Chambers, the champion sculler, was presented with the stakes won by him in his memorable encounter with George Everson, of Greenwich. The ceremony was altogether of an imposing nature, and the evening was spent with the greatest conviviality. Amongst the company present were Messrs. James H. Baird, J. Anderson, James Wilkinson, Joseph Bagnall, James Jamieson, Henry Clasper, Robert Chambers.

THE MARYLEBONE CLUB ANNIVERSARY.
On Wednesday evening the seventy-sixth anniversary of this distinguished club was held in the Pavilion at Lord's Ground—the President, the Earl of Serfo, in the chair. The noble chairman announced to the members that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales had honoured them and cricket by becoming patron of the Marylebone Club. Thirty-three new members were proposed, accepted, and elected, including the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of Marlborough, the Hon. H. B. Esdaile, Lord Methuen, the Hon. George Cardigan, and the Hon. John Lubbock. Prizes were given, for the "good old sentiment of the game," to Crispin and the Marylebone Club; and after a good old sentiment of motion set, ensuring a brilliant season for 1897, the proceedings terminated.

The announcement that Lord Selsby is President of the Marylebone Cricket

THIS, the A. E. E.'s first match for 1881, commenced on Monday last on the Prince of Wales Ground, Pudsey, near Leeds, Yorkshire, and terminated on Wednesday. The following is the total score of the game:—All England: First innings, 79; second ditto, 75. Pudsey: First innings, 66; second ditto, 66.

What a SHILLING may Do.—By expending one shilling in the purchase of one of Joshua Rogers' Prize Medal Shilling Boxes of Water Colours, the recipient is enabled to make a few juvenile acquaintances. It is very probable that the recipient, by beginning to paint, will be enabled to make the true friends of his life, and, as small beginnings often terminate in "large endings," the same probability exists that the recipient may, through the simple shilling box of Water Colours, become a member of the rising generation which the celebrated painters of "yore" have been to the generation of the past, viz., the great art and most celebrated man of the age in which they lived. The above box is to be obtained from Messrs. Rogers and Fane in R-position; also at 15, Pavement, Finsbury, London, E.C.

METROPOLITAN RACE GROUNDS, HACKNEY WICK.

SATURDAY.—Despite all attractions elsewhere this week well-known resort of sporting characters was attended by many first-class admirers of pedestrianism, in order to witness the undermentioned races:

THE TIME MATCH OF CHARLES PAYNE.—Notwithstanding the tackle movement which this Englishman had so unwisely adopted, in his recent match with Sam Barker, of Billingham, he was able to justify himself before the public that he could run, as he liked; and, therefore, the community generally will naturally seek themselves, whenever this worthy brother of a painful family turns up again in the metropolitan district—the fewer times the better for pedestrian honour—whether Master Charles, of unenviable notoriety, intends either to stop or go. Completely riid, as the foolish lighting Yankees would say, the Turbridge misnomer appeared upon that ground which many a million better men had trod before him, in order to convince people that he could run two miles in the space of ten minutes, for, it was said, a lot of £20, although we learnt not the name of the stakeholder. Strange enough, it was thought by the bystanders, that he should Monday—brother Sam himself; and when the contest was declared quired on which of the two occasions Charles had made a fluke of it. Old Chronos, this time, appeared to have no chance with the flyer for his second; and traversed the remainder of the specified distance so satisfactorily that he seemed unsurpassed when the full time of nine minutes fifteen seconds was given for the named two miles,—thus saving himself by there was no beating.

CLARK AND GOODWIN.—The £20 four mile walking match between these two men had to be considered, and when Allen, of Raywater, had consented two will suffice for notifying the issue. Goodwin tried, in a manner (we hope) peculiar to himself, to make a good win of it, but, as this referee very properly adjudged otherwise, and decided that running was to all intents and purposes not walking, Clark was awarded the stake.

Monday.—Half-mile Handicap Race.—This handicap, for money prizes, presented by the proprietor of the enclosure, attracted a goodly number of 70 yds start, G. Davis 70, E. May 70, Cansey 80. The pedestrians were got off in a fine winner by 10 yds, Parker, who ran remarkably well throughout being paid, 65; Tawson, 75; Howes, 80. Another well-contested race, and Tawson 70, Duggan, 70, James passed the goal a winner by 10 yds, Earl second; son, 75; James, 70. These men being the three winners of the preparatory heats, had now to be brought together to run off for the prize. Tawson, of the Hufus hat, led the way at his best pace, and although he declined somewhat in his lapping to May, the sculler, yet he drew a copy of the official return of each heat, together with the final issue—the advantage of the lead being maintained by Taylor from and second, and he went in a fine winner by 4 yds. Second heat: Phillips, 14 yds start; Johnson, 18; Mitchell, 18; Tal, 7. This was a severely contested race, and "corde," going in a winner by not more than half a yard. Third heat: Young, 12 yds start; Foll, 6; Eley, 7; Johnson, 18. The interest of this struggle laid principally between Foll and Young, and after a game race winner by a bare half yard. Fourth heat: Watson, 14 yds start; O'Malley, 14; Reed, 11. Another animated struggle, and Watson the winner by a foot. Banks, 17. As the men came dashing along Beckwith clouded on his opponent, 8 yds start; Cox, 12; Davis, 16. A fine well-contested race, and Bowditch the winner by a yard; Cox second. The six successful competitors were forward satisfactorily at the finish, and beat him easily. May was quite distressed, and fell heavily within the tape, but fortunately did not hurt himself.

CORKEY AND CLATON.—The one mile race, for £5 a side, between these lads, was decided before the issue of the final heat of the handicap. The latter had the advantage of 50 yds start. Odds were proffered on Corkey, who was the home candidate, but there was no acceptance. On turning by the parade on the hill, in the fourth lap, the elected one—Corkey, to wit—came to the front, and speedily afterwards the other competitor gave up.

DEBBY'S LIST APPEARANCE IN ENGLAND.—Mr. Baum gives a ten mile champion belt for competition. To fully test the powers of the celebrated Debbist, and before his departure from our shores, added to the fact that his stay could not be prolonged to enable him to hold the ten miles champion cup, a beautiful belt is to be given by Mr. Baum, of the value of fifty guineas, to set at rest the pretensions of the famed man of Seneca. To prove the genuineness of the transaction, the entries are known open. Other liberal prizes are also added up to the fourth in the race, and such liberality will produce a contest unprecedented before. Fully evidenced by the names of those given below, who will strive for the mastery with the redoubtable Indian. The contest takes place on Monday, and every preparation appears to have been made for the occasion. The entries comprise the names of Edward Mills, Lang, White, Brighton, Barker, Andrews, Stapleton, Richards, &c. There is no doubt of an overwhelming attendance upon such an interesting occasion, and the security of the public may be said to be fully guaranteed, as Mr. Baum has engaged his usual excellent staff of police.

TATTON AND SPENCER.—A further deposit in this match has been made this week.

TUESDAY.—The attendance to-day was more limited than usual, but the proceedings were nevertheless interesting.

FOUR MILES MATCH BETWEEN SAREY AND SAMPSON.—These youngsters first ran the above specified distance for £5 a side, the former being waited upon by Holborn Andrews, and the latter mentioned novice by Young, Warburton, of Holloway. Sarey was backed at 5 and 5 to 4, when they first came on the ground. Sarey, however, took such a decided lead in the fourth lap that as much as 2 to 1 was then invested upon him. The first mile he covered in 2 min and 5 sec, and he was still a-head at two miles, the time then noted being 11 min 10 sec. Sarey, finding the case hopeless, gave up very speedily afterwards, and allowed the other to claim stakes.

YOUNG WALSH AND PEPPER'S NOVICE.—The three miles walking match, for £5 a side, between these youngsters, next followed. There was no betting. The Novice, who gave 200 yds start, gained considerably upon his adversary, even in the first mile. In the tenth lap he caught Walsh, and from that point had the match well in hand, winning as he liked.

PRINCE OF WALES GROUNDS, BOW.

SATURDAY.

This lovely-opened place of amusement for trotting and pedestrian purposes was fairly attended on the above occasion, in order to witness the contest for the handicap prizes for which were given by Mr. Kempston, of Fawn-street, Hoxleydown. Appended is First heat: Taylor, 18 yds start; Lewis, 11. The men got off in good style, the advantage of the lead being maintained by Taylor from and second, and he went in a fine winner by 4 yds. Second heat: Phillips, 14 yds start; Johnson, 18; Mitchell, 18; Tal, 7. This was a severely contested race, and "corde," going in a winner by not more than half a yard. Third heat: Young, 12 yds start; Foll, 6; Eley, 7; Johnson, 18. The interest of this struggle laid principally between Foll and Young, and after a game race winner by a bare half yard.
